I have had some thoughts of going to Boston, to be at your Monday Feast next week; but, besides the cost and inconvenience of traveling, our business & other engagements at home do not shake themselves aright to favor such a purpose. I trust you will have a good time, and that the receipts of the Anniversary may prove adequate to the pressing needs of the cause.

Yours faithfully,

O. Johnson.

I break open my envelope to enclose Ten Dollars for the Subscription. Anniversary, from Wm Henry Burr of this city. He has often reported our meetings.
